

TRANSITION
LOS ANGELES

ROB HOPKINS IN LOS ANGELES

2013

"The Power of Just Doing Stuff!"

Sunday, October 13: Westchester, CA

"Just Doing Stuff" FESTIVAL

2:30–4:30pm

Fun for all ages: Live music, food, Transition-related displays and interaction in the beautiful Emerson Avenue Community Garden, at 80th Place, Westchester 90045. Festival is free.

"Just Doing Stuff" PANEL

5:00–7:00pm

Rob Hopkins' talk and conversation with friends:

Andy Lipkis, founder and director of TreePeople

D'Artagnan Scorza, executive director of Social Justice Learning Institute

Meghan Sahli-Wells, Culver City Vice-Mayor and core member Transition Culver City

Joanne Poyourow, Initiator Transition LA, Environmental Change-Makers

Westchester United Methodist Church.
8065 Emerson Ave, Westchester, CA 90045
Tickets: $10 pre-registration required at www.thepowerofjustdoingstuff.eventbrite.com

Founder of International Transition Movement, moving us from oil dependence to local resilience.

Monday, October 14: Pasadena, CA

"Just Doing Stuff"

TALK and FAIR

10:30am–2:00pm

Transition Pasadena hosts ROB HOPKINS speaking at 11:00am about climate change and how communities across the country and world are transforming their economic, energy and food systems from the bottom up. Welcome by Pasadena Mayor Bill Bogaard.

At the Fair: Repair Café, Learning Garden tours, potluck lunch, and networking with local sustainability groups and neighboring Transition Initiatives.

Throop Unitarian Universalist Church
300 S Los Robles Ave, Pasadena, CA 91101
Tickets: $10, pre-register for $5 at www.justdoingstuffpasadena.eventbrite.com